1. BACKGROUND

The Audit and Control Committee of the Board of Directors of Repsol, S.A. was constituted by the Board at its meeting held on February 27, 1995, following the international best practices.

Although recognised by the “Olivencia” Report (1998)¹ and the “Aldama” Report (2003), the constitution of this type of Committees in the Board of Directors of listed companies, was not obligatory in this country until November 23 date in which the Financial System Reform Measures Act 44/2002, of 22 November, came into effect.

Currently, Article 34 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors of Repsol, S.A. establishes the structure, the operation and the field of activity of the Audit and Control Committee.

In accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, the Committee is an internal body of the Board of Directors with duties of supervision, reporting, advice and proposal, as well as the other duties attributed to it by Law, the Bylaws or the Regulations of the Board of Directors.

The essential function of the Committee is to act as support for the Board of Directors in its tasks of supervising, through the supervision and evaluation of the preparation of economic and financial and non-financial information, of the effectiveness of its executive controls, supervision of the Internal Audit and of the independence of the External Auditor, as well as reviewing compliance with all the legal provisions and internal regulations applicable to the company. Similarly, the Committee has the power to submit the agreement proposal for the Board of Directors, for its subsequent submission to the General Shareholders’ Meeting, on the appointment of the External Accounts Auditors, the renewal or cessation of its appointment, and the terms under which it is to be retained.

Since its creation, and until 31 December 2021, the Board of Directors’ Audit and Control Committee has met on two hundred and twenty-four occasions (the last – in this period – was on 14 December 2021).

¹ The Government of Listed Companies "prepared by the Special Commission for the Study of Ethical Code of the Boards of Directors of companies

2. COMPOSITION

Both the Bylaws and the Regulations of the Board of Directors establish that the Audit and Control Committee will comprise at least three members, all the members of the Committee should be Independent External Directors.

Likewise, and with the aim of ensuring the best fulfilment of its duties, the Regulations of the Board of Directors establish that the members of this Committee, and especially its Chairman, will be appointed taking into account their expertise and experience in terms of accountancy, auditing and/or in risk management, both financial and non-financial. Furthermore, at least one of its members must have experience in business or risk management and knowledge of accounting procedures and, in any event, some of its members must have the financial experience that may be required by the market regulatory bodies of the stock markets in which the shares or titles of the Company are listed.

The Committee appoints its Chairman from among its members, while the Secretary of the Committee will be the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

The members of the Audit and Control Committee serve for a term of four years as of their appointment, and they may be re-elected after this term, with the exception of its Chairman, who may not be re-elected until one year has elapsed after their resigning from the post, without prejudice to their continuance or re-election as member of the Committee.

3. REGULATION OF THE AUDIT AND CONTROL COMMITTEE

The internal regulation of the Audit and Control Committee is included in Article 39 (“Audit and Control Committee”) of the Bylaws and in Article 34 (“The Audit and Control Committee”) of the Regulations of the Board of Directors.

The Bylaws and the Regulations of the Board of Directors are registered in the Madrid Trade Registry and are accessible to the public on the Company's website (www.repsol.com).

4. OPERATION

In accordance with the provisions of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Audit and Control Committee meets as many times as is necessary in order to fulfil the duties with which it has been entrusted and whenever its Chairwoman calls it or when so requested by two of its members. The calls to meeting are communicated, with a minimum advance notice of 48 hours, by letter, telex, telegram, fax or e-mail, and include the agenda of the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting will be included with the call to meeting, whether they have been approved or not, as will the information that is deemed necessary and that is available.

The meetings are normally held at the registered office of the company, but they may also be held at any other address determined by the Chairman and stated in the call to meeting, as well as by telematic means, such as phone connection or videoconference.

For the Committee to be validly constituted, it is required that more than half of its members attend the meeting, in person or represented, except in the event of a lack of call to meeting, which requires the attendance of all of them. Members of the Committee who do not attend the meeting in person may confer their representation on another member of the Committee.

Agreements must be adopted with the vote in favour of the majority of the members present in person or by representation and are reflected in the minutes prepared by the Secretary of the Committee in each each meeting, which will be available to the members of the Board.

The Chairman of the Committee regularly informs the Board of Directors of the progress of its actions.

The Committee drafts an annual calendar of meetings and an action plan for each fiscal year, including an Annual Report on its actions, informing the Board of this.

Additionally, at least once a year the Committee assesses its operation and the quality and efficiency of its work, informing the Board of the result of this evaluation.

5. RESOURCES OF THE COMMITTEE

For the best fulfilment of its duties, the Committee may use the advice of Lawyers or other external professionals, in which case the Secretary of the Board of Directors, on requirement by the Chairman of the Committee, will make available everything necessary for their hiring and their work will be directly referred to the Committee.

The Committee may also use the collaboration of any member of the management team or the rest of the staff, and the attendance at its meetings of the Company's Accounts Auditors.

6. MAIN ACTIVITIES CARRIED OUT IN THE 2020 FISCAL YEAR

In the 2021 fiscal year, the Audit and Control Committee met on eleven occasions. During the year 2021, with the following attendance data:

Member	Meetings attendance

This Report contains a summary grouped under the various basic duties of the Committee.

Likewise, the Chairman of the Audit and Control Committee had held working sessions with the heads of different corporate and business areas of the Company, as well as with the external auditors, which she had reported back to the remaining members of the Committee.

6.1. Economic/financial and non-financial information

During the period covered by this Activity Report, the Audit and Control Committee has analysed, prior to its presentation to the Board, and with the support of the Executive Management of the Group, specially the CFO, its Economic & Tax Corporate Department and the External Accounts Auditor of the Company: (i) the annual public financial information for the 2020 financial year that includes, among other documents, the Annual Accounts and the Management Report -individual and consolidated- including both financial and non-financial information; (ii) the quarterly financial information for the first and third quarters of 2021; and (iii) the six-monthly statements of 2021.

Similarly, the Committee verified that the Annual Financial Statements for the 2020 fiscal year, submitted to the Board of Directors for their approval, have been certified by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Likewise, the Commission has verified that the financial information published on the Company website is always updated and that it matches the information prepared by the entity's administrators as well as the information published on the CNMV website when so required.

6.2. Compliance with the Code of Good Tax Practices

In 2010, the Board of Directors approved Repsol's adhesion to the Code of Good Tax Practices (CGTP), adopted by the Large Companies Forum in which the State Tax Administration Agency (AEAT) participates, having the Company always complied with its contents.

In this regard and in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Good Tax Practices, the Committee was informed at its meeting on 16 February 2021, about the tax policies applied by the Company during 2020, compliance with its tax strategy, about the content of the Group's Voluntary Tax Transparency Report, the incidence of tax risks in the Company's activity and the mechanisms for their management and control within the framework of Repsol's Integrated Risk Management System..

Likewise, the Committee was informed of the Group's principles of action in relation to activities developed offshore and of the initiatives of voluntary tax transparency implemented by the Company, highlighting the periodic update of Repsol's website on responsible taxation and the voluntary publication of the Country-by-Country Tax Report, being for second year the first Spanish company to do so.

6.3. Relations with the Audit, Control and Risk Department

The Committee has ensured, in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the independence and effectiveness of the Internal Audit and that it has the training and adequate means to perform its functions, both as regards personnel, as to material elements, systems, procedures and action manuals.

Furthermore, the Committee has been informed about the closure and evaluation of compliance with the 2020 Annual Corporate Audit Plan and has approved the objectives and the Annual Planning of the Audit, Control and Risk Department 2021, whose main strategic lines are based on the implementation and consolidation of the new procedures for working in audit, focusing, among other issues, on risks and the Audit key areas.

In order to check the internal control and the effectiveness of risk management systems, including financial and non-financial, periodically so that the main risks are identified, managed and adequately understood, the Committee has monitored the progress of the Annual Corporate Audit Plan, aimed at covering the Group's critical and significant risks.

Likewise, the Committee has evaluated the performance of the Audit, Control and Risk Manager and the degree of achievement of the objectives, both the overall objectives of her Management and her individual ones corresponding to 2020 for the purpose of determine her variable remuneration and has also approved the Audit, Control and Risk Management Objectives for the financial year 2021.

In the same way, throughout the fiscal year, the Committee has been informed by the Audit, Control and Risk Department of the most relevant facts and recommendations made evident in the tasks performed by this unit in the year and the grade of compliance of the recommendations issued.

In addition, the Audit and Control Committee has been periodically informed by the Audit, Control and Risks Department on the performance of the Company in terms of integrated risk management, including emerging risks and, specifically, it has been given account to the Committee about the amendment to the monetary claims follow-up procedure and about the amendment of the internal audit statute.

Finally, the Audit and Control Committee also supervised the effectiveness of the System of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting (ICFRS) and the proposed 2021 Work Plan in relation to Internal Control over Non-Financial Information (CIINF).

6.4. Relations with the External Auditor

a) Pre-approval of the services provided by the external auditors

The Audit and Control Committee, in its task of ensuring the independence of the External Auditor and as a good governance measure, has established a procedure to approve previously all the services, be they auditing or not, provided by the External Auditor, whatever their extent, scope and nature. This procedure is regulated in an Internal Rule mandatory for the whole of the Repsol Group.

The Audit and Control Committee approved, at its meeting of April 27, 2021, a delegation of powers to the Chairman of the Committee so that he may authorise, for urgent reasons, the services provided by the External Auditor. Making use of this delegation, the Chairman has approved the provision of a series of services for which the ratification of the Committee has after been requested.

b) Information received from the external auditors

During the 2021 financial year, the external auditors for year PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) have reported to the Audit and Control Committee in the following meetings:

- At the meeting of January 26, 2021, PwC reported on the status of the audit of the financial statements of Repsol, S.A. and its consolidated Group for 2020 and the review of the Impairment Test.
- Subsequently, at the meeting of the Audit and Control Committee held on February 16, 2021, and prior to the revision of the annual accounts, after confirming its independence, PwC informed the Committee about the key audit issues, the main aspects highlighted in the audit of the Annual Accounts of the Repsol Group on December 31, 2020 and its review of the Internal Control System of Financial Information (SCIIF). In this regard, they confirmed that the audit opinions on the annual accounts of Repsol, S.A. and the consolidated statements of the Repsol Group as well as on the effectiveness of the SCIIF would be favorable and would not contain any proviso. Likewise, they reported their favourable conclusions on the limited assurance report on the Statement of Non-Financial Information in the 2020 Integrated Management Report. Additionally, reported on the review of the Financial Statements of Repsol International Finance, B.V. for 2020.
- On the other hand, on April 27, 2021, PwC reported on the review of the Financial Information for the first quarter 2021, including information on the main aspects highlighted in its review.
- At the meeting of 27 July 2021, PwC reported on the limited review of the consolidated summary financial statements of the Repsol Group as of June 30, 2021, including information on the matters highlighted in its review. In addition, they presented the Audit Plan 2021.

- Finally, at the meeting of the Audit and Control Committee of December 14, 2021, PwC reported on the status of the audit of the Annual Accounts of Repsol, S.A. and its consolidated Group, corresponding to the 2021 fiscal year, as well as on the revision of the impairment test, the status of the audit, the review of the ICFRS and other systems related to General Computer Controls (GCO) and the evaluation of risks associated with cybersecurity. They also reported on the audit activities of Repsol Europe Finance, S.à r.l. (REF) and Repsol International Finance BV (RIF)

In order to foster discussion on the specific issues arising from the reviews performed, a part of the meetings with the external meetings took place without the presence of senior management.

c) Committee's report on the External Auditors Independence

The Audit and Control, at its meeting held on February 16, 2021, reviewed and approved a report on the external auditor independence, which refers to the main issues related to this independence, including the information received from the auditor, the amount of fees for their services, the period in which the partners responsible for the audit team have been developing this role, and the external auditor services pre-approval system.

This report concluded that there are not objective reasons to question the independence of PricewaterhouseCoopers as auditor of Repsol, SA and its Consolidated Group for year 2020.

6.5. Oil and gas reserves

In fulfilment of the duties assigned to it, in the 2021 fiscal year the Committee supervised the sufficiency and the effective operation of the registry and internal control systems and procedures in the measurement, valuation, classification and accounting of the oil and gas reserves of the Repsol Group, such that their inclusion in the periodical information of the Group is in line at all times with sector standards and applicable regulations.

6.6. Discretionary treasury stock activity

The Markets Department has periodically reported to the Audit and Control Committee on treasury operations performed by the Company, including those corresponding to discretionary management (regular transactions), those referring to specific plans (employee share purchase plans), as well as purchases made under the Buy-Back Program of own shares for amortization.

6.7. External assessment of the operation of the Audit and Control Committee

Taking as a reference the most relevant requirements and functions of the Audit and Control Committee contemplated in the applicable regulations, in the Bylaws, and in the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Audit and Control Committee has carried out an evaluation of its own functioning and effectiveness during the 2021 financial year, in line with the recommendations of the Code of Good Governance of Listed Companies.

In accordance with the result of said evaluation, the Audit and Control Committee concluded, at its meeting on December 14, 2021, that the operation of said Committee is satisfactory and that both it and its Chairman correctly perform the functions that have been assigned to it. entrusted by the applicable positive and internal regulations.

6.8. Disclosure Committee ("Comité Interno de Transparencia") of Repsol, S.A.

The Audit and Control Committee has been informed regularly throughout the year on the activities of the Disclosure Committee.

6.9. "Communications to the Audit and Control Committee" Channel

The Audit and Control Committee has been regularly informed of the functioning of the Ethics and Compliance Channel, including the number of complaints received, their source, type and the outcome of investigations, and the measures approved with respect to reports received.

Among other matters, this Ethics and Compliance Channel allows employees and any third party to communicate queries and any incident or irregularity of potential importance that they notice, including financial and accounting, or of any other nature, related to the Company.

It is accessible by telephone and through the web, is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and is managed by an external provider (NAVEX Global).
