

PRIVACY STATEMENT

The personal data that may possibly be communicated to our Company (please note that “personal data” are only those referred to an identified or identifiable individual) by our customers or suppliers will only be processed for the purpose of establishing and managing the commercial relationship with Repsol Italia S.p.A..

Conferring said data is a faculty. In some cases, however, it is possible that the refuse to confer them may prevent the execution of the contract or its correct performance. This may happen, for instance, with individual enterprises, when the owner’s personal data are essential for the contract registration within our systems, as well as for the performance of the contractual or connected legal obligations.

The processing of said personal data will only be done by individuals in charge or data processors appointed by Repsol Italia S.p.A., by hard copy or electronic tools, according with the highest security and confidentiality standards.

The personal data that Repsol Italia S.p.A. may control may also be communicated to third entities in charge with the execution of the payments, as well as to affiliated companies, for the purpose of integrated management of the databases.

The data subjects (the individuals to whom the personal data are referred) can exercise towards Repsol Italia S.p.A. the access rights provided for by Section 7 of Legislative Decree no. 196/03 addressing the request to: Repsol Italia S.p.A., via Caldera 21, 20153 Milano

Best regards.

Milano, 21 February 2017

Repsol Italia S.p.A.

